3 2 6

This is the original Maiden Gully dream; a classic Australian homestead set on more than an acre of park-like gardens. Add in an industrial-sized shed and a brilliant outdoor area, and you have all the elements to seize a longed-for lifestyle.

The early 1990s build is a solid brick veneer home, with all the spaces required of a growing family. There's been some welcome updates over the years, and plenty of scope to add your style.

Set well back from the road, behind a private garden and L-shaped driveway, the home has a full-length bull-nosed veranda, and a carport with roller door and storage space.
